A choice Collection of Books in various Languages,
and upon most Branches of polite Literature:

More especially such as relate to
The History and Antiquities of Great Britain and Ireland;
Their early Navigators, Discoverers and Improvers;
And the Ancient English Literature:

Of which there are a great Number of uncommon Books and Tracts, elucidated by Manuscript Notes and Original Letters; and embellished with scarce Portraits and Devices, rarely to be found:

Including the Works of CAXTON, LETTICE, MACHLINIA, the Anonymous St. Alban's Schoolmaster, WYNNIN DE WORDE, PYNION, and the rest of the old English Typographers.

Digested by SAMUEL PATERSON,

Which (by Order of the ADMINISTRATOR,) will be sold by AUCTION,

By Mess. LANGFORD,

P R E F A C E.

THE following Catalogue exhibits a very curious and uncommon Collection of printed Books and Tracts:— of British History and Antiquities, and the rare old English Literature, the most copious of any which has appeared for several Years past — formed with great Taste and a thorough Knowledge of Authors and Characters, by that judicious Critic and able Antiquary, the late JAMES WEST, Esq; President of the Royal Society.

Several anonymous Writers are herein brought to light — many Works enlarged and further explained by their respective Authors and Editors — and a far greater Number illustrated with the Manuscript Notes and Observations of some of our most respectable Antiquaries; among whom will be found the revered Names of Camden, Selden, Spelman, Somner, Dugdale, Gibson, Tanner, Nicolson, Gale, Le Neve, Hearne, Anstis, Lewis, St. Amand, Ames, Browne Willis, Stukeley, Mr. West, &c. &c. — But, above all, the intense Application, and unwearied Diligence of the admirable Bishop White Kennett, upon the Ecclesiastical, Monastical, Constitutional and Topographical History of Great Britain, so apparent throughout this Collection, furnish Matter even to Astonishment; and were alone sufficient to establish the Reputation, and to perpetuate the Memory of that illustrious Prelate, without any other Monuments of his Greatness.

In an Age of general Inquiry, like the present — when Studies less interesting give Place to the most laudable Curiosity and Thirst after investigating every Particular relative to the History and Literature of our own Country; nothing less than an elaborate Digest of this valuable Library could be expected; and, as a Supplement to the History of English Books, more desired.

That Task the Editor has cheerfully undertaken; and, he flatters himself, executed as well as the short Time allowed would permit:—He further hopes, to the Satisfaction of such who are capable of judging of its Utility and Importance.

The Lovers of engraved English Portraits — a Species of modern Connoisseurship (which appears to have been first started by the late noble Earl of Oxford; afterwards taken up by Mr. West, Mr. Nickolls, Editor of O. Cromwell's State-Papers, Mr. Ames, &c. and since perfected by the Muse of Strawberry-Hill, the Reverend Mr. Grainger, of Shiplake, and some few more ingenious Collectors) may here look to find a considerable Number of singular and scarce Heads, and will not be disappointed in their Search.

It remains only to point out the Order of the Catalogue, which is divided into twenty-four Days, for the more readily finding out the several Subjects and Sizes.

Explicit Dam Julyans

Barnes in her Boke of Huntynge.

So I have seen it frequently quoted, but without any regard to, or mention of the Poem, of which it is evidently the final Line — After proclaiming their successful Return from the Hunt by Sound of Hornes at the Lords Gate, she concludes,

Yours Play for to mynne, Or that ye come Inne

Explicit Dam Julyans Barnes in her Boke of Huntynge.

I hope I shall be pardoned this trifling Discovery (of no more Consequence, quence, I confels, than a round O restored by Mr. Theobald, if it is any. S. P.

This exceeding rare Book (commonly called Rastell's Chronicle) was the Gift of the truly honourable Edw. E. of Oxford and E. Mortimer to Mr. West, 1729.

Mr. West's Note and References are too interesting to be passed over— "This, says he, is the only perfect Copy of this very rare and curious Book, known in the World.—Nicolson in his Historical Library, says, he knew not where to find this Book.

" See the strange Account of the Murder of Edw. 5. and his Brother—This Book was printed only 46 Years after their supposed Death, when there must have been many living who remembered them—And the more so, as John Rastell, the Printer and Publisher, was a Man of Learning, and of the Law, and intimate with Sir Thomas More, whose sister he married.

" See the comparative Value of Money at the Death of Rich. 2. and the 21 Hen. 8.

" Qu. Who has seen the Cosmographical Chart called Mappa Mundi, mentioned in the Prologue, where the Story of Brute is very satisfactorily confuted?

" See a curious Account of Stonehenge, c. 11.—Also of K. Arthur's Seal, on Edw. the Confessor's Monument in Westminster Abbey, discussed, c. 111.

John Martin	2	2	4195	Description des Royaumes d'Angleterre et d'Ecosse composée par Maître Estienne Perlin, Paris, chez Fr. Trepeau, 1558, dédié à Madame Marguerite, Duchesse de Berri,œur unique du tresnoble Roy de France, Henry de Valoys, futur Monarque & Empereur de tout le Monde. The unfavourable Report which this foolish Frenchman has made of the English, his Description of London and some of its obsolete Customs, the mistakes he has fallen into, the Misnomers of Persons and Places he has committed, with his Affectation of the Language, of which 'tis very evident he never understood a single word, are truly ridiculous.—But the particular Time of his being here, the Influence of the French Ambassador Badaulphin, who, as he pretends, had our young King under his Thumb (il gouvernoit le petit Roy Edouart) the unhappy Union of Lord Guilford Duddie and Lady Jane Gray, the Death of K. Ed. 6. the proclaiming of Qu. Jane, the beheading of the D. of Northumberland, &c. (of which he was an eyewitness) the Restoration of Popery, the royal Entry of Qu. Mary, a Description of her Habit and Complexion, and of the Princess Elizabeth, &c. render it a very singular Piece of Entertainment, S. P.
